Julia Oostdik, PFS' Modular Label Coordinator, is shown above crossing the finish line at the Fox Cities Marathon, Festival of Races 2006, on Sunday, September 24th. She completed the 26.2 mile marathon in an impressive 6 hours, 40 minutes and 58 seconds. Congratulations, Julia!

Julia told Encore she trained for this event for six months, starting in April 2006, and here in her own words is a page from her blog about training for the marathon:

“Today is the first day of the rest of your life, whatcha gonna do? When you are young you might have thought about what you would do with your life. Move to the coast, become famous, be able to fly like Superman, or one of the million choices out there. On my list — I wanted to run a marathon by the time I was 30. Of course, 30 was forever and I had no concept of how far that was.”
